

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
NORTHEASTERN DIVISION

GREGORY RYAN WEBB,

Plaintiff,

v.

GARY MCKENZIE, et al.,

Defendants.

NO. 2:23-cv-00014

ORDER

Gregory Ryan Webb, an inmate at the Cumberland County Sheriff's Department, has filed seven pro se civil rights cases under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 in this Court since March 2023. These cases overlap in substance, but to keep things clear, the Court will address each case by separate Order.¹ In Case No. 2:23-cv-00013, Plaintiff filed a motion requesting to dismiss this case. See Case No. 2:23-cv-00013, Doc. No. 4. Plaintiff does not need the Court's permission to voluntarily dismiss his own case at this stage in the proceedings; rather, the case is automatically dismissed upon filing of a notice of dismissal. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(1)(A)(i) (allowing automatic voluntary dismissal if filed "before the opposing party serves either an answer or a motion for summary judgment").

Accordingly, the Court acknowledges that this case has been DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. The Clerk is directed to close the file.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

WAVERLY DCRENSHAW, JR.
CHIEF UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

¹ Plaintiff has also filed a habeas corpus petition, docketed under Case No. 2:23-cv-00020. That case is subject to a different legal framework than the seven cases Plaintiff recently brought under Section 1983. Plaintiff's habeas corpus case will be addressed by separate Order as well.
